FELC

O Store (CHINT Distribution Boxes) FELCO Store offers surface-mounted CHINT distribution boxes with durable, impact-resistant materials. These are ideal for installations where flush mounting is not feasible and provide organized housing for circuit breakers. Considerations When Choosing a Distribution BoxProtection Level: Look for IP-rated boxes (e.g., IP65) for outdoor or wet environments.

Material and Durability: Flame-retardant plastic or impact-resistant materials ensure safety and longevity. Module Capacity: Choose a box that accommodates the number of circuits required. Mounting Type: Surface-mounted or flush-mounted options depending on installation needs.

How to Purchase

Visit supplier websites or physical branches for in-stock availability. Contact suppliers directly for bulk orders or specific product inquiries. Check online marketplaces like Lazada Philippines for Glowtech products and other distribution boxes.

These suppliers provide a reliable starting point for sourcing Philippine-made or locally stocked electrical distribution boxes for various applications.
