Cable tray corner installation price

Overview

Get a detailed breakdown of 2024 cable tray installation costs. Learn how labor, materials, and other factors influence the final price.

Key Takeaways

The installation price for cable tray corner brackets typically ranges from $10 to $50 per bracket, depending on material, size, and installation complexity.

Cost Breakdown

Hardware Costs: Cable tray corner brackets are part of cable tray accessories, which include supports, couplers, tees, and brackets. Prices vary based on material and duty rating: Steel brackets: Generally the most affordable, suitable for standard indoor installations. Aluminum brackets: Lightweight and corrosion-resistant, slightly more expensive.

Stainless steel brackets: Highest durability and corrosion resistance, ideal for harsh environments, costing more than standard steel or aluminum. Installation Costs: Labor costs depend on the complexity of the installation, wall or ceiling mounting, and the number of brackets required. On average: Simple installations in accessible areas: $10–$20 per bracketComplex installations with multiple directional changes or high ceilings: $30–$50 per bracketAdditional costs may include fasteners, wall anchors, and any cutting or drilling required for mounting.

Factors Affecting Price: Material of the bracket – Galvanized steel, aluminum, or stainless steel. Type of cable tray – Ladder, ventilated, or solid-bottom trays may require different bracket designs. Installation environment – Indoor vs. outdoor, height, and accessibility.

Quantity – Bulk purchases may reduce per-unit cost. Supplier and brand – Premium brands like Legrand or Schneider Electric may charge more. Example: For a standard indoor steel cable tray system with moderate complexity, installing a corner bracket may cost around $15–$25 per bracket, including labor and mounting hardware.

For outdoor or corrosive environments using stainless steel, the cost could rise to $40–$50 per bracket. By considering these factors, project planners can budget accurately for cable tray corner bracket installations and avoid unexpected expenses.
