Huijue also provides customized solutions for FTTX networks, data centers, and digital integrated site power systems, with options for OEM/ODM services and small or bulk orders.

Certifications and Quality

Huijue maintains ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 certifications and ensures compliance with international standards such as GR-1209. Products undergo rigorous environmental testing, capable of operating in extreme temperatures from -40°C to 85°C. The company emphasizes quality assurance and rapid delivery, with dual production bases supporting 72-hour emergency shipments.

Market Reach

Huijue serves major Chinese telecom operators, including China Mobile and China Telecom, and has deployed over 2 billion ODN devices in various applications such as FTTH and 5G fronthaul. Its products are also exported to Europe, North America, Southeast Asia, and other regions, supporting both domestic and international clients.

Summary

Huijue is a manufacturer and supplier of optical cables and fiber optic components, offering a full range of products from core optical fibers to network distribution solutions. With strong R&D capabilities, international certifications, and a global market presence, Huijue provides both standard and customized optical network solutions for telecom, enterprise, and industrial applications.
