OpenAI s AI server tripped again

Overview

1AI's check of OpenAI's company status page shows that the company issued a news release at 3:00 a. Beijing time today, saying that ChatGPT, the API, and its text-to-video generator Sora are "currently experiencing a high rate of errors". Core functionality has been restored but we are aware of known and ongoing issues in FedRAMP workspaces with Codex, workspace analytics, conversation search, searching for custom GPTs, ChatGPT user invites, and the Compliance Logs Platform download endpoint. We are working to resolve these issues. When given the command to protect itself at all costs OpenAI's new AI model deceived, lied, manipulated, and copied itself to a new server to protect itself. The implications for AI safety are HUGE. Love the Exponential Future?
