Impex Ltd.: Acts as a local agency for European manufacturers like GEWISS, offering access to high-quality distribution boxes and related electrical products.

Additional Considerations

While Palau does not appear to have large-scale local manufacturers, these international suppliers and distributors can provide products suitable for residential, commercial, and industrial applications. Companies like EKT Enerji and Omnium Electric also serve global markets and may offer shipping or distribution solutions to Palau. For procurement, it is recommended to contact these suppliers directly to confirm product availability, shipping options, and compliance with local electrical standards.

Local distributors or importers in Palau may also facilitate sourcing and installation support.
